

David Elswick

Sales Representative

Serving the Northwestern Pennsylvania area.

David joined Baltimore Life's Northwest Penn Agency in 2014. A graduate of Slippery Rock University, he has bachelor's degrees in business, finance, and Spanish. David is one of the top 10 sale agents at Baltimore Life. During his career with Baltimore Life, he has achieved Rookie of the Year and is a multiple convention qualifier. David also has won numerous awards and recognitions, including being a four-time Jack Frank Award winner.

While he enjoys helping young adults who are just starting their families and careers, he also specializes in senior life products —including retirement, estate planning, income replacement, educational expenses, satisfying mortgage debt and transferring assets as desired after death.

David prides himself on putting his client's needs first and building lifelong relationships with the people he serves. He services Northwestern Pennsylvania from Pittsburgh to Erie.
